Greetings,

I would like to invite you to become a sponsor of the 1st International Conference on “The Integrated Protection of Date Palms,” to be held at the Arabian Gulf University from March 13 -14 March 2017.

We are diligently working on bringing together researchers from a variety of disciplines who are working on vital topics in this area. These researches are from virtually all date producing countries. This conference will have two full days of technical sessions, along with poster sessions regarding issues on the cutting edge of date palm pest management. There will also be many opportunities for the exchange of information, ideas and interaction among participants of the conference.

Through this invitation, we look forward to your organization in being a partner with us through taking part in this important conference. Below are the options for the several sponsorship levels available. Thus, this provides sponsors with options for different levels of exposure that are related to their financial commitment.

For any further inquiries on this subject matter, do not hesitate to contact us.

We earnestly look forward to you envisaged positive response

Sincerely,

Dr. Khalid A. N. Al-Ohaly

President of the Arabian Gulf University
